

M. Darlene Carson Biography

M. Darlene Carson has spent her career as a C-Suite Executive Assistant for more than 30 years and is a Certified Administrative Professional through the Association of Administrative Professionals. She presently serves as the Executive Assistant to the President/CEO of Mid-Ohio Food Collective (MOFC) in Grove City, OH.

In this position, Darlene works closely with the President/CEO, Governing Board and Executive Leadership Team providing administrative support and is the primary contact for the administrative office. Additionally, she is responsible for planning and logistical support for special projects, activities, meetings, conferences, and workshops.

She joined MOFC in 2014. Prior to her position at MOFC, she served as an Executive Assistant to the CEO's at Children's Hunger Alliance, Project Linden, Inc., and Private Industry Council.

Darlene enjoys sharing her stories and experiences as a featured speaker at women's events locally and statewide. Her messages promote unity and sisterhood as well as inspire audiences with relatable insights and applicable lessons that help them to win. Additionally, she and her husband are health and wellness advocates with MFinity Global and travel across the United States presenting seminars to groups on how to improve their health and healthcare outcomes.

When she is not scheduling a gazillion meetings or coordinating projects and activities, she is creating. As Founder of Words to Life Drama Ministry LLC (WTLDM) and DollHouse Inspirations, she produces plays, monologues, poetry, creates spiritual greeting cards and writes a blog entitled "Her Pen".

A member of the Dramatist Guild of America and the International Centre for Women Playwrights, she has penned, produced, and directed several stage and musical productions which explore Christian themes, faith, and values.

She is the author of the book SHE: An Exposé' of Her Insufficiencies that was released in April 2021. She is a resident of Grove City, OH and is married to Darrell Carson, has five daughters, one son, fourteen (14) grandchildren, and two great grandchildren.